As a child, Dave Pelzer was horrifically abused by his mother, who considered him to be an 'it', not a child. But he survived, and lived to tell his courageous story. Haunted by memories of his years bruised and cowering in his mother's basement, his life remained a struggle – but he was determined to make something of himself.

Dave's dramatic reunion with his dying father and the shocking confrontation with his mother led to his ultimate calling: mentor to others struggling with personal hardships. From a difficult marriage to the birth of his son and an enduring friendship, Dave was finally able to break free from his past, to trust, to love, and to live.

From the bestselling author of A Child Called 'It' and The Lost Boy:

'Dave Pelzer conveys brilliantly how his own determination allowed him to keep alive his dream . . . Truly touching, and emotionally shocking. A marvel'
