'Stories with spice. Further evidence
deftness and insight'
Independent

A son wreaks revenge through the power of cookery, a lonely wife finds short-lived solace in angling lessons from a prisoner, and an obedience lesson with a puppy leads to the discovery of a murder...

From the delightfully chilling to the humorous and heart-warming, this exhilarating collection of stories illuminates experiences both common and uncommon, and is full of the same wit, tenderness and sharp psychological observation as Patrick Gale's much-loved novels.

'A master storyteller. Quite simply, you believe every word he tells you'
Independent on Sunday

'A fine writer'
Mail on Sunday

'A hugely enjoyable collection that proves that the short story is still very much alive'
Daily Express
