The international bestseller
by the author of THE VIRG

1-40462

'Expansive and radiantly generous ... a colossal act of curiosity, of imagination and of love' New York Times Book Review
Books of the Year

"I was born twice: first, as a baby girl, on a remarkably smogless Detroit day in January of 1960; and then again, as a teenage boy, in an emergency room near Petoskey, Michigan, in August of 1974."

So begins the breathtaking story of Calliope Stephanides and three generations of the Greek-American Stephanides family, who travel from a tiny village overlooking Mount Olympus in Asia Minor to Prohibition-era Detroit, witnessing its glory days as the Motor City, and the race riots of 1967, before they move out to the tree-lined streets of suburban Grosse Point, Michigan.

To understand why Calliope is not like other girls, she has to uncover a guilty family secret and the astonishing genetic history that turns her into Cal, one of the most audacious and wondrous narrators in contemporary fiction. Lyrical and thrilling, MIDDLESEX is an exhilarating reinvention of the American epic.

'A transatlantic epic ... Eugenides has taken the greatest mystery of all – what are we, exactly, and where do we come from? – and crafted a story that manages to be both illuminating and transcendent. MIDDLESEX isn't just a respectable sophomore effort; it's a towering achievement' Los Angeles Times

'Superb ... a warm and beautifully written novel that illuminates the part of the human soul that even biology cannot reach' Sunday Times

'Eugenides combines a rigorous understanding of his sources with a wry and sprightly voice that is entirely original. The result is a ... of the American Dream into a ... anywhere before' Daily Telegraph
